

Jeff Leong, Poon & Wong welcomes Tan Hui Wen as new dispute resolution partner

We are pleased to welcome Ms Tan Hui Wen as a new partner at our law firm. She brings a wealth of experience in disputes and litigation having practised for a number of years at another reputable firm.

Hui Wen's addition marks a pivotal step in our firm's dispute resolution practice evolution underscoring our dedication to expanding this area of expertise to support our clients' needs. Having been established for over 25 years, our firm has handled some impressive cases over the years. We are thrilled to build on our firm's achievements by admitting Hui Wen as a new partner.

Palace of Justice, Putrajaya

Our dispute resolution practice represents large foreign companies, commercial banks, financial institutions, public listed companies as well as insurance companies in all aspects of commercial and general civil litigation and arbitration.

Historically recognised for our excellence in various practice areas, we have been steadily building our dispute resolution practice over the years. With Hui Wen joining the team, we are eager to take this practice area to new heights.

More on Hui Wen

Hui Wen has represented private sector firms, Fortune 500 companies, government-linked companies, state agencies, and a state government as advocate and solicitor in West Malaysia's courts. Her experience extends to domestic and international arbitrations, where she has acted as party representative for businesses in and out of Malaysia. She is able to conduct trials and hearings in English and Bahasa Malaysia.

Hui Wen is actively involved in the business and legal community. Previously, Hui Wen served as the ICC YAF Regional Representative for South Asia (2019–2021) at the International Chamber of Commerce Young Arbitrators Forum, being the sole representative from Malaysia. She was also an elected member of the Kuala Lumpur Bar Committee (2023/2024) and Chairperson of its Young Lawyers Committee (2023/2024). In 2021, she was recognised as an "Up and coming litigation lawyer" by asialaw Profiles.

Hui Wen is presently a member of several professional committees, including the Malaysia New Zealand Chamber of Commerce (MNZCC) Committee, the Malaysian Bar Council's Corporate & Commercial Law Committee, Malaysian Bar Council's International Practice Committee and Kuala Lumpur Bar's Civil Practice & Court Liaison Committee. She serves the University of Auckland Alumni Network as its Alumni Coordinator based in Malaysia.
