JLPW promotes Shakila Binti Naseer Ahmad as Partner

We are proud to announce the promotion and appointment of Shakila Binti Naseer Ahmad as Partner in the firm's Dispute Resolution practice.

This appointment reflects our continued commitment to recognising talent from within, strengthening leadership across key practice areas, and delivering strategic legal solutions to meet increasingly complex client needs. As the Firm's Dispute Resolution practice continues to advise clients across a broad range of commercial, banking, employment, property and regulatory disputes, Shakila's appointment further strengthens the depth and leadership of the practice and enhances our ability to support clients in navigating complex legal challenges.

Called to the Malaysian Bar in 2002 after obtaining her Bachelor of Laws (LLB Hons) from the University of London, she has appeared before all levels of the Malaysian courts and advised clients across a broad spectrum of contentious and advisory matters.

Over the course of her career, Shakila has acted for local and international financial institutions, public utility and telecommunications companies, corporate enterprises, cross-border clients and private individuals. Her practice encompasses banking and finance litigation, debt recovery and enforcement proceedings, corporate and commercial disputes, employment and industrial relations matters, construction and shipping disputes, real estate and land litigation, estate administration and selected criminal law matters.

Her credentials as an Associate of the Chartered Governance Institute (ACG) further complement her dispute resolution practice, enabling her to advise on corporate governance, regulatory compliance and risk management matters with a unique combination of litigation insight and commercial understanding.

Known for her meticulous preparation, practical approach and unwavering commitment to client service, Shakila consistently delivers legal solutions that are not only technically sound but also aligned with her clients' commercial objectives.

Shakila's promotion to Partner is a testament to her exceptional legal expertise, dedication to excellence and significant contributions to the Firm's growth and success. Her appointment further strengthens the Firm's dispute resolution capabilities and reinforces our commitment to providing clients with high-quality, commercially driven legal representation.
